

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

in English

Exploring “Sustainability” and International Cooperation in Education: Insights from Partner Countries

Tuesday, July 22, 2025

4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Room #203, IDEC Building

Speaker: IKEDA Ami

Associate Professor (Special Designation)

International Education Development Program

Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences

Hiroshima University

After completing her Master's degree, she began working at Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), with a particular focus on international cooperation in the education sector. Her experience includes roles at Secretariat of Japan Overseas Cooperation Volunteers, Human Development Department, Myanmar Office, Southeast and Pacific Department, and Chugoku Center in Hiroshima. She has been seconded to her current position from JICA since July 2022 and is scheduled to return to JICA in August 2025.

REGISTRATION

<https://forms.gle/iDDCy8jKNqNdQrfL7>

More information

info@iedp.hiroshima-u.ac.jp